

PRESS CONFERENCE

THE VENEZUELAN CIVIL SOCIETY COALITION IN THE USA WILL ADDRESS THE IMMIGRATION SITUATION AND DELIVER A LETTER TO REPRESENTATIVE MARIO DÍAZ-BALART

DORAL, FL. The Venezuelan Civil Society Coalition in the USA, comprised of Venezuelan organizations, community leaders, and independent civil society representatives, invites members of the media to a press conference to present our community's growing concern over the serious immigration situation affecting thousands of Venezuelans in the United States, particularly in the City of Doral.

The following topics will be addressed during the press conference:

- Recent immigration measures and their impact on the Venezuelan community.
- The uncertainty facing asylum applicants with pending cases.
- Statements made by President Donald Trump during the Hispanic Heritage Month celebration.
- The presentation and delivery of a collective letter to U.S. Representative Mario Díaz-Balart.
- A request for his intervention with the appropriate authorities and for more flexible and humanitarian consideration of pending immigration cases, within the framework of the law and with respect for due process.
